

David

The Iron Hand of Götz von Berlichingen

It's a beautiful summer day. David will be meeting Tim; they want to go to the Neckar together. While David is waiting for Tim, he reads in his book about knights. He sits under a tree in front of the door. That way he can see when Tim arrives.

Yesterday was the school trip to Burg Hornberg. David remembers exactly what the man said about Götz von Berlichingen during the guided tour. Now he is reading about that in his book. And here comes Tim. He is easy to recognize, because as always he's wearing a black T-shirt and blue jeans.

Where is David sitting?

He is sitting under a _ _ _ _ in front of the door.

buckler – der Schild

will be meeting – wird sich treffen
to recognize – erkennen